[The Guardian] Pubs are for everyone. Don't let Reform make them the political property of the boorish hard right | Jonathan Liew

Wed, 11 Feb 2026 12:00:06 GMT

Farage and Anderson's sums aren't the only thing that doesn't add up about their plan to save the great British pub. The pint is served roughly. It spills as it lands on the bar, sending a little eddy of suds down the glass, into the lattice of branded rubber matting, a place where neither scrubbing brushes nor a desper

[Daily Mail] Tories accuse Reform of 'fantasy numbers' as row erupts over Farage vow to save British pubs

Wed, 11 Feb 2026 09:13:38 GMT

Reform has been vying for publicans' backing after Labour was forced to backtrack on a planned business rates rise for pubs and music venues. But it has been accused of 'irresponsible' promises.
