Keir Starmer is our most musical prime minister since Edward Heath. He must take up the baton for the arts | Martin Kettle

Guardian (Politics) · Thu, 18 Dec 2025 06:00:28 GMT

Not all of the problems of Britain's cultural sector come down to funding, but an awful lot do. That's where leadership comes in As you listen to a Christmas performance of Handel's Messiah, it is easy to persuade yourself that all is still well with music and the arts in Britain. I again felt the familiar potency of b
