Starmer will fail to improve living standards – but it isn't all his fault

City AM (News) · Wed, 11 Feb 2026 05:51:00 +0000

Between the mid 1960s and the mid 2000s, the living standards of the poorest half of households doubled. Increasing by 1.9 per cent a year, it took four decades to make this leap. To emulate that progress again, starting from today, would take 137 years. This is not a state of affairs that can be [...]
