Conditions may feel rife for a coup within Labour – but a change of leader alone isn't going to fix things | Polly Toynbee

Guardian (Politics) · Tue, 30 Dec 2025 08:00:02 GMT

For all the talk of coups, this much is clear: without a strong vision, Labour will face a fresh crisis of legitimacy Will he still be there to see in the next new year? Noise about Keir Starmer's durability quietens with MPs being away from Westminster's tearooms and murmuring corridors, but WhatsApps zing to and fro

Tuesday briefing: A surreal year in news gives our cartoonists endless material

Guardian (Politics) · Tue, 30 Dec 2025 06:45:01 GMT

In today's newsletter: Covering everything from Donald Trump to AI, and Gaza to Ukraine, award-winning cartoonist and illustrator Ben Jennings shares his favourite caricatures of 2025, and we share ours too. Good morning. It's been one of those years where the news cycle felt almost too surreal to caricature. From Jeff
