[The Guardian] In Gorton and Denton, I found a long-fester sense of fury that Labour has no idea how to tackle | John Harris

Sun, 01 Feb 2026 15:24:08 GMT

The people I met were disconnected and angry at the same time. Even if Labour somehow wins this by-election, how does it arrest the slide into hopelessness? The route of the No 201 bus begins in the regenerated wonderland of central Manchester, and follows a straight line through the neighbourhoods to its east. The city

[City AM] Jenrick's defection was "a mistake", senior Tory claims

Sun, 01 Feb 2026 10:36:02 +0000

A member of the shadow cabinet has said Robert Jenrick's defection from the Conservatives to Reform UK was "a mistake", fuelled by "frustrated personal ambition". Shadow home secretary, Chris Philp, said Jenrick's decision to join Nigel Farage's party came from his upset about

[The Guardian] 'You can tell the mood has changed': How Plaid Cymru led the Welsh fightback against Reform

Sun, 01 Feb 2026 10:19:09 GMT

Nigel Farage's party was on the charge in Wales – but after the seismic Caerphilly by-election, progressives now believe they can come out on top in May. The night after Plaid Cymru decisively beat Reform UK in the Caerphilly by-election last autumn, spraypaint reading "Now u can fuck off home" appeared on the shutters of
