[The Guardian] 'He goes a bit funny if you use his real name': the unstoppable rise of Count Binface

Sat, 11 Jul 2026 05:00:43 GMT

Nigel Farage foresaw a summer stroll to glory when he forced a byelection – but now risks his career being trashed. The votes were being counted and the media had gathered for the moment that Andy Burnham, his sights on Downing Street, would be elected as the MP for Makerfield in greater Manchester. But Nick the Flying

[City AM] The devastating prognosis for the UK's public finances

Sat, 11 Jul 2026 00:37:00 +0000

While much of the media obsesses over Nigel Farage's fight with a man dressed as a bin, I have something more sobering to discuss as we kick off the weekend. The Office for Budget Responsibility's report into fiscal risks and sustainability, published this week, is comfortably the most alarming yet. This is an annual r
