[The Guardian] Don't discount Reform because it's had a bad year. In our angry, fragile democracy, anything can happen | John Harris

Sun, 20 Sep 2026 07:00:09 GMT

Nigel Farage's tactics are to play up the anxiety and resentment that people feel. Labour's job is simple: to offer hope and change. Despite the energised start Andy Burnham has made as prime minister, plenty of his party's MPs and hardcore activists are still haunted by a familiar sense of insecurity. Underpinned by a
