[The Guardian] Farage still Reform's best hope as rivals struggle to match appeal to party faithful

Mon, 07 Sep 2026 17:58:46 GMT

Despite series of scandals, members remain loyal to their leader as questions over his successor grow
Few British politicians unleash the kind of evangelical zeal among their party faithful as Nigel Farage.
Despite being weighed down by weeks of scandal, last weekend's Reform UK conference showed that – as far as the m

[The Guardian] A Reform UK without Nigel Farage used to be unthinkable. Not any more | Gaby Hinsliff

Mon, 07 Sep 2026 17:08:06 GMT

The scandals are building, his touch perhaps not quite what it was. And, most of all, his party rivals are beginning to sense an opportunity Nigel Farage didn't know. He wasn't told. Sure, he was right there at the table when the undercover reporter he believed to be a rich American's son spelled out very clearly how h

[The Guardian] Why does the hard right have such a high tolerance for domestic abusers in their midst?

Mon, 07 Sep 2026 16:20:25 GMT

The 'stop the boats' narrative is increasingly presented as if it stems from a concern for women's safety. This is just the laundering of thuggery. It was a busy weekend for the insurgent and hard right, as Reform party delegates redoubled their commitment to women's safety by physically attacking a female protester and

[The Guardian] Is the UK about to see the rise of the far right? – podcast

Mon, 07 Sep 2026 15:49:58 GMT

Alternative für Deutschland has claimed a historic win in Germany, continuing the pattern of populist far-right parties gaining power across Europe. In the UK, balaclava-clad far-right protesters have marched on Dover, and then Portsmouth, trying to intimidate asylum seekers. Meanwhile, Reform UK's conference ended with

[City AM] Richard Tice: A Reform government would scrap EV mandate to save Jaguar Land Rover

Mon, 07 Sep 2026 14:57:41 +0000

By forcing companies like JLR to wind down profitable internal combustion engine models ahead of true consumer demand, ministers have effectively forced our flagship manufacturer to cut off its own revenue streams, says Richard Tice. For decades, Jaguar Land Rover has stood a proud symbol of West Midlands manufacturing
