Cities are the big winners in Burnham's devolution drive. But what happens to the rest of England? | John Harris

Guardian (Politics) · Sun, 30 Aug 2026 11:00:55 GMT

Labour has promised a 'fundamental rewiring' of power. But some areas are years into their devolution journey while others scramble to get started Apart from the joyous hyperactivity that comes with suddenly making it to No 10, there are good reasons why Andy Burnham seems to be a prime minister in a hurry. If he decid
