[The Guardian] At Brighton, Polanski raised his arms in triumph. It felt more like a wave goodbye | John Crace

Fri, 02 Oct 2026 17:20:35 GMT

The Greens' leader seems long on agitprop but short on ideas – and one byelection away from losing his job The Chronicle of a Death Foretold. It must be weird to realise that you have in effect made yourself obsolete inside a year. Worse, that you have actively accelerated your demise. Even AI doesn't work at that speed

[The Guardian] The Guardian view on the Conservative conference: a party still searching for a purpose | Editorial

Fri, 02 Oct 2026 16:51:19 GMT

Kemi Badenoch has a lot to say about Labour and Reform UK but none of it amounts to a coherent alternative programme for government The Conservative party is far from the margin of British politics, but it has yet to recover the relevance to which it feels historically entitled. The Tories are flattered by their status
