[The Guardian] The Guardian view on Labour's leadership: Andy Burnham has a story. He must also have a plan | Editorial

Mon, 22 Jun 2026 17:42:00 GMT

Keir Starmer won power but never explained Britain's crisis. The new MP for Makerfield offers a sharper diagnosis – and one that voters can understand Political careers often end when circumstances demand qualities that a politician cannot supply. That seems especially true of Sir Keir Starmer. On Monday, he stepp

[City AM] Taxpayers will foot the bill for Burnham's renationalisation whims

Mon, 22 Jun 2026 13:16:54 +0000

Nationalisation will simply have the Treasury assume private spending commitments with little knowledge of how to run these businesses, thereby increasing the burden on taxpayers, says Valentin Boboc For the first time in nine years, Andy Burnham is back in Westminster. With his eyes on the top job and a year rife with

[The Guardian] Keir Starmer's fatal flaw? The blankness on to which voters projected their years of frustration | John Harris

Mon, 22 Jun 2026 09:19:08 GMT

His government was directionless and confused, and from that murk emerged the Peter Mandelson scandal On a bone-chillingly cold morning in January, it felt as if I had suddenly found at least part of the reason for Keir Starmer's chronic unpopularity. I was in the Mancunian constituency of Gorton and Denton , where the
