Andy Burnham should show London he cares by funding this one transport project

City AM (News) · Thu, 23 Jul 2026 04:14:00 +0000

The ascendancy of the 'King of the North' has spooked London. James Ford outlines that this can easily be fixed by greenlighting the West London Orbital Railway London is anxious. The new Prime Minister is not just something of an unknown quantity, but – worse still – he is (whisper it quietly) Northern. Now, we've [..

Will Burnham take the pressure off business? Don't bank on it

City AM (News) · Thu, 23 Jul 2026 04:13:00 +0000

Andy Burnham's big ambitions come with a big price tag. Our analysis shows a £22bn black hole of unfunded commitments, including the costs of honouring decisions announced in the dying days of Keir Starmer's government, such as NHS pay rises and the Defence Investment Plan. If you add in the new PM's

Business will be the judge on whether Andy Burnham can "regain stability"

City AM (News) · Thu, 23 Jul 2026 04:05:00 +0000

If Andy Burnham is serious about being a friend to business he should commit to no new business taxes, says Alan Vallance When every new government begins – and there have been a few in recent years – the goodwill they start with is already a diminishing return. Businesses understand that no Prime Minister can [...]
