Burnham is taking a bold risk by busting the big lie of politics – that change is impossible | Frances Ryan

Guardian (Politics) · Tue, 28 Jul 2026 05:00:29 GMT

Unequal capitalist societies survive on the premise that certain things are inevitable. Admit that these are political choices, and who knows what voters will demand? This is the danger zone. The period when one prime minister leaves office and the next takes over can inspire either dread or delight: a few days in which
