[The Guardian] Oppressing women is how authoritarianism begins. So listen to what Reform is saying | Zoe Williams

Mon, 25 May 2026 15:43:16 GMT

We saw it when Russia jailed members of Pussy Riot, and again when the US overturned Roe v Wade: misogyny is a powerful political weapon. Let's focus on fighting it, not 'understanding' it In preparation for interviewing Pussy Riot's Maria "Masha" Alyokhina at the Charleston festival, I was reading her new memoir, Poli

[The Guardian] Here is Andy Burnham's route to save Labour: a new manifesto, a new election and electoral reform | Polly Toynbee

Mon, 25 May 2026 15:00:29 GMT

Proportional representation can rescue Britain's warped politics. It could stop Nigel Farage arriving at No 10 with less than 30% of the vote Here comes the prospect of redemption, a second chance for Labour to start over. A victory for Andy Burnham in the Makerfield byelection not only opens the door to No 10; a lead

[The Guardian] Elon Musk retweet signals rightwing split that could help Andy Burnham in Makerfield

Mon, 25 May 2026 14:43:50 GMT

Restore Britain, set up by the former Reform MP Rupert Lowe, appears to be taking some support from Nigel Farage. Andy Burnham is unlikely to be Elon Musk's first pick to be prime minister of the UK. But an intervention by the US tech billionaire on behalf of a far-right offshoot of Reform UK is one of several signs that

[The Guardian] To understand Britain's new politics, look no further than this Shakespearean saga in Worcestershire | Jason Okundaye

Mon, 25 May 2026 05:00:16 GMT

What should be a story of Reform incompetence instead speaks to the broader refusal of Westminster to adapt to multiparty democracy. If you want a window into how a fragmented nation and a splintered party system are reshaping British politics, look no further than the drama at Worcestershire county council. It shows th
