I've seen what can confound Farage on his home turf: optimism. People need a politics that offers them that | Owen Jones

Guardian (Politics) · Thu, 30 Jul 2026 05:00:52 GMT

You can't blame his constituents in Clacton for their pessimism – because they have been let down for years Under battered England flags, cynicism, pessimism and exhaustion stalk the streets of Clacton. As the byelection called by Nigel Farage approaches, one young couple do not know which candidates are standing. Neit

Scotland is a warning of what Andy Burnham's devolution experiment will look like

City AM (News) · Thu, 30 Jul 2026 04:45:00 +0000

For an idea of what left-wing devolution yields, look no further than Scotland, where SNP statist's efforts to extort the wealthy have backfired, writes Joseph Dinnage For a socialist, Andy Burnham has a funny approach to central government. Unlike his forebears across the former Soviet Union, southeast Asia and
