[dailymail.com] DAILY MAIL COMMENT: Right-wing can learn important lessons from Clacton

Sat, 15 Aug 2026 11:59:10 GMT

Undereniably, the Clacton by-election was largely a waste of public money. Nigel Farage is left disadvantaged by the whole event, which he triggered in the misguided hope.

[dailymail.com] RICHARD LITTLEJOHN: Don't write off Farage - there's life in the political pirate yet!

Sat, 15 Aug 2026 11:16:11 +0100

If what Farage calls the 'Uniparty' believe in democracy, they should have stood candidates. Instead they were, in the words of Thatcher, 'frit'. They knew he'd beat them convincingly.

[The Guardian] 'Let's see what he can do': will Burnham bring voters back in Labour heartlands?

Sat, 15 Aug 2026 09:55:26 GMT

With questions over Farage's finances and a new face in No 10, could Barnsley council be a bellwether for changing Labour fortunes? Labour marked its worst performance in more than 50 years when voters went to the polls in Barnsley in May, but 100 days on from those seismic local elections, the political landscape has
